

Way Above it All

words and music by Gregg Hodge

Angry and lonely

Were about the only ways I used to feel

Out and in I was owned by sin

And I couldn't give in and just kneel

But I didn't yet know that hands don't have to be bound

Not everyone can be kept down

No, some are gonna raise a sound to Heaven

But when I lost enough and wept enough

I started looking up for someone who is way above it all

way above it all

Under the heavens there were oceans

And there were mountains of misery and unanswered death

Until a flawless life became a sacrifice

And He closed His eyes and released His breath

But He already knew that hands don't have to be bound

And not everyone can be kept down

And He was gonna raise a sound to Heaven

Sin was cancelled enough, and death was conquered enough

And Satan crushed enough by someone who is way above it all

way above it all

Exalted Christ is exalted ... gloriously exalted ... above all things

Don't you know that your hands don't have to be bound

Not everyone can be kept down

So why don't you raise a sound to Heaven

You'll get joy enough and life enough

When you start reaching up for someone who is way above it all

way above it all
